Where Are You

Lyrics by Susanna Orga, Nicolas Stucky, Jason Lanz, Ayça Bulut | Music by Nicolas Stucky

Blue sky, sunny day,
the sun warms our hearts.
It's going to be a perfect day,
but not everyone is here.
She'll be here in a little while,
we are waiting for her.

Refrain

Melanie, it cannot be.
But it is true.
Where are you?
Melanie, it cannot be.
But it is true.
Where are you?

What does it mean, that you're not here,
we don't know why.
A cloud covers the shiny sun,
it's going to be cold.
Our hearts freeze and we can't believe,
that you had to go.

Refrain

We will miss your friendly smile,
your laughs, happiness and way you were.
We will keep this in our hearts,
all the memories of you, of you.

Refrain

We know, you will never come back but you will live in our hearts.
It will take time until the dark cloud is gone.
From now on, you will be our sun.
